

Wellesley Service League hosts annual Friendship Circle luncheon

The Wellesley Service League hosted its annual Holiday Luncheon for the Friendship Circle in December. Sponsored by WSL and Wellesley Friendly Aid, the Friendship Circle provides weekly social gatherings during the fall, winter and spring for senior women at the Wellesley Friendly Aid building. For more information about Friendship Circle, contact Katherine Tambone at 781-235-3452.

The Wellesley Service League is a non-profit organization providing a variety of volunteer services to the Wellesley community. The WSL has approximately 75 active members and more than 200 sustaining members. Some of the local groups for whom the WSL provides services include: Wellesley Friendly

At the annual Friendship Circle luncheon: Sitting left to right: Larissa McCue, Alyce Tangerini, Maria Corda, Rose Petrillo, Ann Royal. Standing left to right: Rita Coyle, Ruth von Kelsh, Maria Pagonis, Helen Johnson, Marge Clark, Betty Marchesi, Mary Snow, Marianne Miller, Anne Quinzani, Connie Sullivan. COURTESY PHOTO

Aid, Wellesley Free Library, Wellesley Food Pantry, Barton Road Boys and Girls Clubs, Newton-Wellesley Hospital, and Charles River ARC. The WSL has been committed to assisting their community since 1927.

SCHOOL NOTEBOOK

Centennial Youth Service Award

The Wellesley Service League, a non-profit service organization meeting the needs of the Wellesley community, accepting applications for its annual Centennial Youth Service Award. The applicant should be a Wellesley resident, completing his or her senior year in high school, who has demonstrated unusual dedication and selflessness in a volunteer capacity. Ideally, this service has been performed in the immediate area. The Wellesley Service League will name two recipients this year. Each recipient will receive a $1,000 award. In addition, the honorees' names will be engraved on a permanent plaque that hangs in the Wellesley Community Center. To request an application form, please email Tina Vasconcelles at vascofamily@comcast.net

The application deadline is March 15, 2013.