Dr. Case is guest speaker

On Tuesday, May 14, the Wellesley Men's Club gathered for their monthly meeting at the Wellesley Friendly Aid Building. This month's speaker was Professor of Economics Emeritus Dr. Karl Case at Wellesley College. Case discussed the economic trends in real estate over the past 45 years and the statistical creation of the Case-Schiller index that he pioneered in 1991.

The Wellesley Men's

Club is open to all retired Wellesley men and meets monthly on the second Tuesday of the month, October - June. The next meeting will be the annual luncheon held at the Wellesley Community Center on June 4 at 11:30 a.m. Dr. Frederic Chartier, professor of economics at Babson College, will be speaking.
