

WELLESLEY SERVICE LEAGUE

League honors high school seniors for volunteer service

Each year the Wellesley Service League gives awards for outstanding volunteer service in the community to two graduating seniors. This year's winners are Lucy Kapples and Cameron Friedman.

For the last four years, Lucy has volunteered at New England Disabled Sports on Loon Mountain. A graduate of Newton Country Day School, Lucy has spent over 1,000 hours teaching adaptive skiing to physically and mentally challenged children.

Cameron Friedman, a WHS graduate, has spent countless hours working as a youth group advisor and assistant minister at the Unitarian Church in Wellesley. As a Boy Scout, he obtained his Eagle Scout badge. He spent many weekends and vacations on community service trips to New Hampshire, West Virginia, NYC, and Guatemala.

Lucy and Cameron were each presented with a $1,500 check and their names will be engraved on a permanent plaque at the Wellesley Community Center.

For information about applying for the award in Spring 2015, email Penny Darcey at pdarcey@comcast.net.

WSL Past President Kathy Skelly presents the annual Centennial Youth Service Award to Lucy Kapples and Cameron Friedman. Courtesy photo.
COURTESY PHOTO