

HONORS

Tina Vasconcelles, president of Wellesley Service League, presents Andrew Kingsley (center) and Davey Melton (right) with the 2012 Wellesley Service League Centennial Youth Service Award.

COURTESY PHOTO

Wellesley Service League

The Wellesley Service League has announced that Andrew Kingsley and Davey Melton are this year's recipients of the Wellesley Service League Centennial Youth Service Award. This award is given to honor a Wellesley resident who is a high school junior or senior and has demonstrated outstanding dedication in volunteer endeavors. Andrew and Davey received their awards from the Wellesley Service League President, Tina Vasconcelles.

Andrew, who is graduating from Roxbury Latin School, was nominated because of his commitment to the Massachusetts Special Olympics. Andrew has spent every winter Saturday for the past four years coaching and guiding his basketball team and they have been quite successful. Sally Stevens, Associate Director of College Guidance at Roxbury Latin remarked that Andrew "has a unique gift for working with individuals on his teams and for creating tremendous team spirit." Andrew will be attending Dartmouth College in the fall.

Davey, who is graduating from Boston Trinity Academy, was nominated because of his numerous leadership and teaching roles both at his school and at his church, MetroWest Baptist in Wellesley. Davey is an active and dynamic leader in the music, education and youth programs at both locations, and Deanna Dwyer, a member of the church, commends Davey for his "conta-